

Hi, friends!

This Monday (Oct. 14) we will be flying to Chiang Mai, Thailand for almost three weeks of meetings. The first is a Curriculum Development Workshop which Barrie will be helping to present. The second is a Church Development team discussion and planning meeting, and the final meetings are the triennial Asia Leadership Forum (ALF). NTM leaders from Thailand, Philippines, Indonesia, Papua New Guinea and other countries will gather for some or all of these meetings. We'd appreciate your prayers that the Lord will use these times to teach, encourage and refresh each one who attends. Pray, too, for good health and stamina for the presenters, and that God will help each one communicate clearly and effectively.

I (Cherri) am feeling more comfortable with my ministry as NTMS "office administrator". I know many of you were praying for me and I really appreciate it. I've had some very frustrating and overwhelming days but am thankful for all I've learned. Our office staff gets along really well --- I guess that's good since the only office staff is me --- with a little help from my sweet husband! :)

In our update last month, we mentioned how happy we were to find that the Firm Foundations curriculum has already been translated into Tamil by someone in India, and that we'd ordered a few copies from there. We have not yet received them, and our last couple of emails to our contact in India have not yet been responded to. Please pray that we will indeed be able to get these books so that Barrie can use them in training some of the Indian men here to teach it to other Tamil speakers.

We thought you'd enjoy a few pictures of some more sights of Singapore:

No, Barrie did not shave his head!

This Buddhist offering by the side of the road is a common sight.

I have no clue what it is, either! Dried squid? Octopus?
Chinatown .

This Hindu Temple in Little India is right next to

We are SO blessed by your love and prayers!!

Serving Together,

Barrie and Cherri
